

Performance forecast

Forecaster recommends a budget and predicts the most revenue and profit you can make. It plans your spend across the three performance marketing channels, executes your campaigns automatically and optimises your campaigns so they hit your profit target and go on to give better and better results.

